Health Frontiers in Tijuana (HFIT) & the 100K Strong in the Americas Initiative at UCSD Proudly Present:

Dr. Craig Hendrix,
Johns Hopkins Medical School

Please join us for this unique talk where Dr. Hendrix will share information about career paths in medicine, highlighting from his experiences in military medicine, leading clinical trials, and conducting drug development research.

Dr. Hendrix is trained in internal medicine and infectious diseases; he is a world-renowned leader in clinical pharmacology. His research focuses on HIV antiretroviral development. Dr. Hendrix previously served in the US Air Force as an Aerospace Physiologist and physician. Dr. Hendrix has a long history of mentoring students of all levels.

Who: This talk is open to all students!
Where: Skaggs School of Pharmacy Building, Room 1186
When: Friday, October 23, 2015
Time: 4pm-5pm

Pizza and drinks will be provided!

Please RSVP to Dr. Victoria Ojeda at: vojeda@ucsd.edu